Terms and Conditions

These Standard Terms and Conditions are binding on the use of the all ‘cabenet’ products and services - from the time you confirm signup online to subscribe to a cabenet account subscription which provides access to ‘the Service’ or ‘Services’.

The holding company for cabenet Accounting Services (trading as ‘cabenet’, ABN 84 746 217 401) is Digital Tuna Corporation Pty Ltd (ABN 44 156 858 71).

These terms and conditions apply to you as a user of the Service (“Client or You”). Please read these terms and conditions carefully. It is a condition of use of the Service that you comply with all stated terms and conditions.

cabenet may change or enhance the ‘Service’ at any time and reserves the right to also change these Terms and condition, effective on posting of the modified terms on the cabenet Website. By continuing to use the service, you are accepting the amended Terms of Use. We will make reasonable efforts to communicate changes to you via the cabenet user message board and or by email. However, it is your obligation to read, understand and agree to comply with the most recent terms and conditions as posted on our Website.

By registering to use the ‘Service’ you acknowledge that you have read and understood these Terms and Conditions and have the authority to act on behalf of the entity (the ‘Client’) subscribing to the account and any person/s authorised or permitted to have access to the ‘Service’ (‘Users’). You are deemed to have agreed to these Term on behalf of the entity for whom you use the ‘Service’.

This agreement commences on the date of online registration and continues until terminated in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

These Terms and Conditions were last updated on Monday, 19 December 2016.

1. Application and Variation of these Terms

1.1. These terms and conditions are the terms on which we provide the Service to you. These terms constitute the agreement in its entirety and supersede prior agreements. We may modify these terms as applying to any agreement, pricing structure for any Service or the terms of the operation by posting on our website (www.cabenet.com.au) and any use after that publication will constitute an acceptance of that modification.

2. Service

2.1. cabenet will assign an client ID and password, to give Your access to the Service, in accordance with your registration. Records will be created in accordance with information provided in your account Setup. This right is non-exclusive, non-transferable, and limited by and subject to this Agreement.

2.2. We will advise you of any changes affecting your access or data by notice on your Account Welcome page (on www.cabenet.com.au.) or by email to your registered practice email address as recorded in your Setup - Practice area of your account.

2.3. Scheduled Maintenance must be performed to data and programs from time to time. We will attempt to perform scheduled maintenance at times which will affect the least number of Clients. If scheduled maintenance requires the Service to be off-line for more than 30 minutes we will post details on the cabenet message board, in advance of the scheduled maintenance.

2.4. Unscheduled maintenance may need to be performed. If unscheduled maintenance requires the Service to be off-line for more than 30 minutes, we will post details of the event on the website as soon as possible. Where feasible we may also send email or SMS alerts to You with urgent information.

3. Payments to us

3.1. You must pay for the Service as agreed. In particular you must pay monthly Fees, and any other specific service charges incurred by You or any designated users of your account or incurred as a result of any use of your cabenet ID and password and or any other User passwords created by you, whether authorised by you or not.

3.2. In addition, You must provide and pay for: (a.) the installation and use of telecommunication services and all equipment needed to access the Service; and (b.) all government taxes, duties and levies (if any) imposed on either You or us in respect of the Services or any other service or goods supplied.

3.3. Subscription and any other fees are invoiced online to your cabenet account. Your first regular monthly payment (after registration) will be invoiced to you, at the first calendar month of Your use (the first month being the month in which Your registration occurred). cabenet will continue invoicing You monthly in advance for your subscription and for any other fees when incurred by You, until this Agreement is terminated in accordance with clause 5.

3.4. Other service fees are billable on completion of the requested service unless otherwise advised.

3.5. If you choose to pay an amount in advance, this will be credited to your account and this will be applied against future invoices to reduce the balance owing on your account. Registration and or other payments made including advance fees will not be refunded under any circumstances.

3.6. Preferred payment methods are online using, either the ANZ e-gate for credit cards or BPay. Both payment methods can be easily accessed via your account payment link on your cabenet account. You may also choose to pay by direct debit through your online banking facility, please include your client ID in the transaction details.

3.7. Additional fees may apply for processing cheque payments, to cover any bank fees and administration charges incurred by us for processing such payments.

3.8. You must pay all amounts specified by the due date. Your Service will be automatically suspended for non-payment and access will only be reinstated after payment in full of any outstanding balance. You should allow sufficient time (prior to the due date) for your payment to be processed by the relevant financial services (yours and ours), and to be received and credited to your account to avoid any unintended interruption to your access.

4. Our Warranties and Liabilities

4.1. We do not warrant that: (a.) the Services provided under this agreement will be uninterrupted or error free; or (b.) the Services will meet your requirements or (c.) the Services will be free from external intruders (hackers) or other persons having unauthorised access to our Services or systems. To avoid doubt, all implied conditions or warranties are excluded in so far as is permitted by law, including (without limitation) warranties of merchantability, fitness for purpose, title and non-infringement.

4.2. Except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Agreement, all warranties whether express, implied, statutory or otherwise, relating in any way to the subject matter of this agreement, are excluded. Where any statute implies in this Agreement any term, and that statute avoids or prohibits provisions in a contract excluding or modifying the application of or liability under such a term, then the term will be taken to be included in this Agreement. However, our liability for any breach of the term will, if permitted by that statute be limited, at our option, to the resupply of the Services again; or payment of the cost of having the Services supplied again (by us).

4.3. Except under clause 4.2, we will not be liable to You for: (a.) any loss or damage in respect of the provision or use of the Services, (b.) any costs, claims, loss or damage of any kind resulting from your fraudulent, negligent or otherwise unlawful behaviour, (c.) any costs, claims, loss or damage arising from any information, Client Data, other data or material provided to us by You or on your behalf.

5. Your Obligations and Guarantees

5.1. You must only use the Service for your own lawful business purposes, in accordance with these Terms and Conditions and any notice sent by cabenet or condition posted on our Website. You may use the Service on behalf of others or in order to provide services to others, but if you do so you must ensure that you are authorised to do so and that all persons for whom or to whom services are provided comply with and accept all terms of this Agreement that apply to You.

5.2. You warrant that: (a.) at the time of entering into this Agreement You are not relying on any representation made by us which has not been stated expressly in this agreement, or on any descriptions or specifications contained in any other document, including our website, any catalogues or publicity material which we have produced; (b.) You will conduct such tests and computer virus scanning as may be necessary to ensure that Client Data uploaded by you onto or downloaded by you from the server does not contain any computer virus and will not, in any way, corrupt the data or systems of any person; (c.) You will keep secure any passwords used to upload Client Data to the Server and (d.) You hold and will continue to hold the copyright in the Client Data or that You are licensed and will continue to be licensed to use the Client Data.

5.3. You accept responsibility for all Client Data, information and material You input to the Service, and indemnify us and hold us harmless against any liability in relation thereto. In particular, You undertake that You shall not publish or issue any Client Data or information which is illegal or defamatory. You also acknowledge that we do not vet or approve any Client Data, information or material available through the Service and that we do not accept any liability. You access and use such Client Data, information and material at Your own risk.

5.4 You will ensure that all account access information (account ID, usernames and passwords) used to access the Service are kept secure and confidential. You must immediately notify cabenet of any unauthorised use or any other breach of security. You are responsible for assigning user access and appropriate security level access for each user of your account and must immediately remove any username and permissions that are no longer authorised by You to access the Service.

5.5 You must ensure that Web browser and virus protection software on all devices used to access the Service is kept up-to-date. You must take all other actions that cabenet deems necessary or advisable to maintain the security of cabenet's computing systems and networks and your access to the Service.

5.6 You must not attempt to:

5.6.1 undermine the security and integrity of cabenet’s computing systems or networks or where the Services are hosted by or linked with a third party, that third party’s computing systems and networks;

5.6.2. gain unauthorised access to any materials other than those to which You have been given express permission to access or to the computer system on which the Services are hosted;

5.6.3. transmit or input to the Service, any files that may damage any other person’s computing devices or software, content that may be offensive, or material or Data in violation of any law (including Data or other material protected by copyright or trade secrets which you do not have the rights to use);

5.6.4. modify, copy, adapt, reproduce, disassemble, decompile or reverse engineer any computer programs used to deliver the Services or to operate the Website except as strictly necessary for normal business operation.

5.7. You are solely responsible for dealing with persons who access the Client Data, and must not refer complaints or inquiries in relation to such data to us.

5.8. You accept responsibility for all information and material, backup and security of Client data created via cabenet and stored on a local network or third party application or storage service. Users of any third party application or service connected with Your use of this Service are solely responsible for their own conduct and the content of any files created and stored to that service. It is your obligation to ensure you and all registered users of your cabenet account read, understand and agree to comply with third party service provider’s terms and conditions.

5.9. You indemnify us against all costs, expenses, loss or liability that we may suffer (directly or indirectly) resulting from: (a.) your breach of these terms, (b.) Your use or misuse of the Service and (c.) the use or misuse of the Service by any person using your account, (d.) publication of defamatory, offensive or otherwise unlawful material on any website forming part of Your Service.

5.10. You warrant and represent that You are acquiring the right to access and use the Services for the purpose of a business and that, to the maximum extent permitted by law, any statutory consumer guarantees or legislation intended to protect non-business consumers in any jurisdiction does not apply to the Supply of the Services, the Website or these Terms.

5.11. You are solely responsible for ensuring that You comply with all laws (and relevant industry professional regulations) relating to the conduct of your business and the application of the software and systems in that business including without limitation to trust accounting, taxation, business document retention and privacy requirements.

12.3.5. Terminate this Agreement and Your use of the Services and the Website;

12.3.6. Suspend for any definite or indefinite period of time, Your use of the Services and the Website;

12.3.7. Take either of the actions in sub-clauses 5 and 6 of the clause in respect of any or all other persons whom You have authorised to have access to Your information and Data; or 12.3.8. Suspend or terminate access to all or any Data.

12.4. Following termination of Your subscription to any cabenet service, for whatever reason, we will endeavour but make no guarantee to retain Your account data on our systems for a period of approximately six months.

12.4.1 If you choose to Terminate Your subscription to the Service, You will ensure before closing the account that, You have exported your Matter files and retained hard-copy records of all information related to the period of Your cabenet use, as may be required according to the requirements of the Legal Profession Regulation and legislation, the Australian Taxation Act as well as any other applicable industry or business standards.

12.4.2 Access to Your data after Termination, while this information is still retained by us, will only be granted on payment of all outstanding fees or if applicable, payment of our quoted fee for one-off data download for specific information as may be requested by You.

12.4.3 Any time after the end of the data retention period, following termination of Your subscription, we may delete such data as may be required as part of our internal business or system maintenance requirements.

13. Support desk

13.1. Technical Issues. You must take all reasonable efforts to diagnose the nature of any problem with Your use of the Service. cabenet does not provide support for issues that relate to telecommunication services or computer devices used to access the Service. Please check the User Help Library for resolutions to problems, then if unresolved email us at support@cabenet.com.au.

13.2. User support. Users should firstly refer to the online Help library for instructions and explanations regarding use of cabenet modules and features. Further support may be requested by emailing support@cabenet.com.au. Fees apply for phone support or additional online training sessions (after the first month of service) and face-to-face training. cabenet will not provide instruction or advice on business tax or other accounting issues, only in relation to correct use of the cabenet Service.

13.3. Service availability. Whilst cabenet intends that its services should be available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, it is possible that on occasions the Services or Website may be unavailable to permit maintenance, upgrades and repairs, or as a result of failure of telecommunications links and equipment that are beyond our control. cabenet will take reasonable steps to minimise such disruption to the extent it is within our reasonable control.

cabenet may modify or discontinue, temporarily or permanently, the Services or Materials, or any portion thereof, with or without notice. You agree that cabenet shall not be liable to you or anyone else if we do.

14. General

14.1. These Terms and the terms of any other notices or instructions given to You under these Terms of Use, supersede and extinguish all prior agreements, representations (whether oral or written), and understandings and constitute the entire agreement between You and cabenet relating to the Services and the other matters dealt with in these Terms.

14.2. You grant to us a license to use and reproduce all Client Data in order to fulfil our obligations under this agreement.

14.3. We may use subcontractors to fulfil any or all of our obligations under this agreement.

14.4. A provision of, or a right created under this agreement, may not be waived except in writing signed by the party granting the waiver, or varied except in writing signed by the parties.

14.6. You may not assign Your rights and obligations under this agreement without our prior written consent.

14.7. Any notice given under these terms by either Party to the other must be in writing by email and will be deemed to have been given on transmission. Notices to cabenet must be sent to support@cabenet.com.au. Notices to You will be sent to the principal's contact email address registered on Your Practice Setup details for Your account.

14.8. A person who is not a party to these terms has no right to benefit under or to enforce any term of these Terms.

15. Jurisdiction

15.1. Your use of the service and these Terms of Use are governed by the laws of the State of New South Wales in the Commonwealth of Australia and you agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts in NSW, Australia.

15.2. We do not represent or warrant that cabenet services will meet the profession standards or other requirements for use by legal practitioners in all jurisdictions, where the service may be viewed or used. You must ensure that your use of the Service is in accordance with the laws and professional standards of your jurisdiction.
